

Maths

- Addition and subtraction. (Using a column method.)
- Using the inverse operations to check our answers are correct.
- Solving addition and subtraction problems, which we have to split into 2 steps.
- We will become confident when deciding which operations and methods to choose

Cross Curricular Maths

Victorian style Maths lesson.

PSHRE

- We will learn about Victorian family traditions.
- We will research Royal traditions
- We will visit Macclesfield Silk Museum and take part in a Victorian activity day.

Science

- We will learn about the human body in relation to the digestive system and skeleton.
- We will learn about teeth and their different functions.

English

We will read The Chimney Child.

- We will explore features of a non-chronological report.
- We will be writing our own newspaper report inspired by this.
- We will also write a diary entry as a Victorian working child.

Cross-curricular English

- Write a newspaper about the working conditions for children.
- A diary entry about a day in the life of a Victorian child.
- Debate about children's rights.

History/Geography

- We will explore changes in fashion
- We will experience a day in the life of a Victorian child.
- We will compare the lives of the rich and poor.
- We will investigate geographical links with the British Empire.
- We will locate places around the world named after Queen Victoria.
- Investigate Victorian buildings in our local area.

Computing

- We will use programming to create floral designs in the style of William Morris.

Year: 4

Term: Autumn 2

Topic: Chim Chim, Chiree

Special Events:

A Day In The Life of A Victorian Child

Art/Design

- Explore the work of William Morris.
- To use a view finder to sketch a design replicating his work.
- Use this design to create a piece of Victorian fabric.
- Design and create Victorian toys.

PE

- We will continue to create and add to our Victorian dance.

Outdoor

- We will play outdoor Victorian games
- Take part in a traditional Victorian style drill.

Music

- We will learn the songs for our Christmas production.
- We will begin to perform with instruments.