• please pop it in your diary.

A reminder that the next move up session will be tomorrow morning, Thursday 5th July. Parents are welcome to drop into the new classroom at the start of the day!

We have become aware that our current text system is sending out texts that appear to come from different telephone numbers.

Parents have told us that if you download the app then it stores all your texts together in one place. This should mean that you do not miss any important information.

Urgent Message from Ralph and the Girls

We are home alone again this weekend! If you want to spoil our wild party plans please contact the school office to look after us! We also need volunteers to look after us over the summer holidays. Thank you

This weeks whole school 'we can' focus is 'We can be safe in the sun'
