English- Bronze

Please re-write what the characters are saying in their speech bubbles into sentences.
Remember to use capital letters, full stops, commas, question marks or exclamation marks and inverted commas.

For example: "Do you like bananas?" said Morris the monkey.

English- Silver

Please write these sentences again using the correct punctuation- capital letters, full stops, exclamation marks, question marks, commas and inverted commas. You will need to re-word the sentences so they make sense.

Add an adverb to each sentence.

For example- "I have toothache," moaned Tim miserably.

Challenge- Can you use different words for 'said'?

1. Tim said he had toothache.
2. The teacher said I may go.
3. Bob said he could not come.
4. Mary asked if she could have another piece of paper.
5. The driver said the bus was already full.
6. Our grandma asked us to go to the farm as soon as possible.
7. I asked her to let me look at the photograph.
8. The tramp asked my mother for an old coat.
9. Father asked me to post this parcel.
10. The guide told us to turn right at the corner.
11. Tim answered this was his seat.
12. Paul asked if he could go with us to the baths.

English- Gold

Please re-write this passage. Remember to include all of the correct punctuation: capital letters, full stops, inverted commas, exclamation marks, questions marks and commas. Make your writing more exciting by using different verbs instead of said.

Don't forget new speaker, new line.

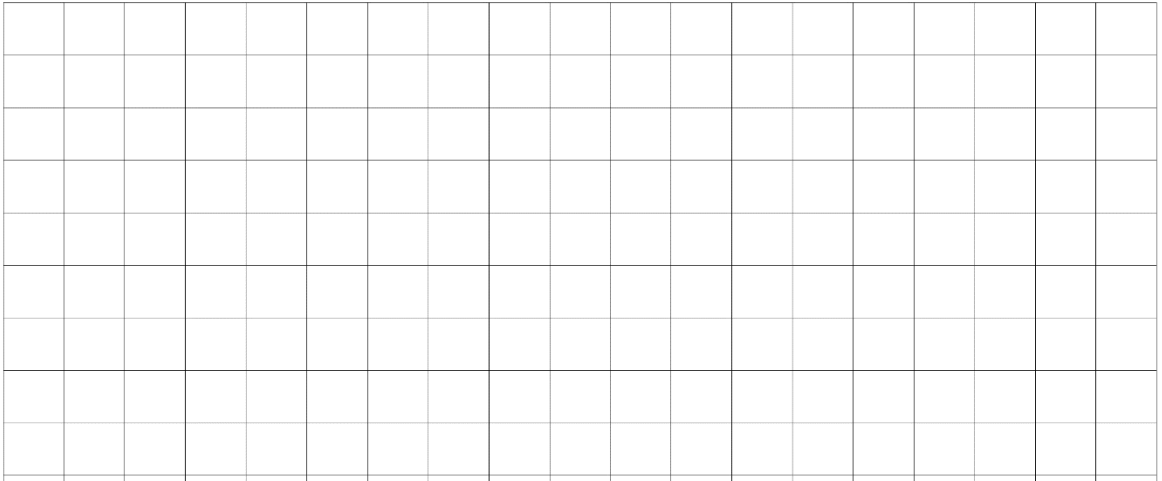

Also add a range of adverbs into your writing.

tim and bob were returning home from school they had been talking about their work when tim suddenly said shall we play marbles
I can't said Bob
why not asked tim
I lost my marbles in a game at lunchtime today answered bob
After a moment's silence tim said perhaps it is just as well because it is too busy on the pavement and it is dangerous to play on the street.
