Learning Together, Learning for Life

11th September 2020

Thank you to everyone for your support this week. It has been tricky as the 'start of school' cold has arrived and lots of the children have caught it! We thought it would be good to put a few frequently asked questions together for you to support your decision making and give clarity. (Green Box below)

The children's behaviour has been exemplary since their return and the staff found it difficult to choose their Rockstars this week as so many deserved it! Long may this continue!

Thank you for returning your school reading books. If you still have some at home then please give them to a member of staff at the gate.

It is Roald Dahl Day On Sunday. It would be lovely to hear if the children have watched, listened to or read some of his wonderful stories. We will be listening to some of them in school during the week to help celebrate his imaginative writing!
