

Maths

Geometry- Properties of shapes

Place value- ordering and comparing numbers up to 10,000

Rounding to the nearest 10, 100 and 1000

Estimating numbers on a number line

1, 10, 100 and 1000 more/less than a number

Comparing numbers

Negative numbers

Counting in 25's

Cross-curricular Maths

Victorian related word problems

PSHRE

- Which attributes make a good friend and how to be a good friend both in person and online.
- Recognise how 'knowing someone online' differs from knowing someone 'face to face'
- To recognise what to do if a friendship makes us feel unsafe or uncomfortable.
- Why different religions and countries celebrate Harvest
- Why it is important to believers to celebrate special times in life?

Science

- We will learn about Thomas Edison.
- We will identify common appliances that run on electricity.
- Create a simple circuit, to make a light bulb light up.
- We will investigate whether a material is an insulator or conductor.

English

We will read The Secret Garden

We will explore the features of narrative texts.

We will be writing our own narrative inspired by this.

We will also write a detailed set of instructions and study the work of Victorian poet, Edward Lear.

Cross-curricular writing

Debate whether children should go to work. Debate the positive and negative of Victorian and modern day life.

A fact file about Victorian schools.

Persuasive advert for Victorian toy.

Year: 4

Term: Autumn 1

Topic: Seen but Not Heard

Special Events:
Victorian School
Day

History/Geography

- We will look at how children's lives now differ to Victorian children's lives.
- We will learn about the various jobs that children would complete in the Victorian era.
- We will learn about the Ragged school system and understand how this impacts on us today.
- We will look at the impact of Dr Barnado's care for children.
- Use various sources and items from the past to build a picture of life as a Victorian child.

Computing

We will develop understanding of keeping safe on the internet.

We will edit and enhance images and text to insert them into word documents.

We will keep files organised.

Art/Design

- We will develop skills of drawing and transfer skills to use pen and ink.
- Experiment with the use of light/dark tones to make my drawing realistic.
- Develop cross hatching skills to add three dimensions to my work.
- Use circuits to design/make a spinning top.

PE

- We will develop skills and techniques in a range of invasion games.
- We will learn how to defend and attack effectively.

Outdoor

- We will play outdoor Victorian games
- We will create a large scale timeline on playground.

Music

- We will learn about the origins of the National Anthem/Rule Britannia/Jerusalem
- We will begin weekly Violin lessons.